European Week of Action Against Racism Event March 18th

March 18th, 2015, from 9:00 - 17:00 hrs., a European Week of Action Against Racism event will be held at Mykolas Romeris University (MRU).

It is organized by MRU's International Students Association (ISA), jointly with Amnesty International (AI) and the European Foundation of Human Rights (EFHR).

The one-day event includes lectures, and an exhibition, games and informational stand that will open from 9:00 a.m. in the MRU foyer of Building II.

From 13:30 hrs., in MRU's I-414 aud., there will be welcome remarks delivered by a representative from Amnesty International (AI) and MRU Bachelor's Degree student Lahcen Mehennaoui from Algeria, one of the organizers of the event.

At 14:00 hrs., Law Faculty Vice-Dean Assoc. Prof. Regina Valutyte will present a lecture, "Religious Discrimination."

More of the events on offer listed in the flyer below.

March 20th. 11:00 - 14:00 hrs., in the tent at Kudirkos aikštė (Square) in Vilnius, all interested can take part in a contest and have their photos taken and discuss how to fight discrimination.

All invited.
